DETAILED ACTION

1. The claim is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claim is generally confusing.

“the front” has no antecedent basis.

“the opening being provided on the front” is confusing. The drawings show the front of the trunk is closed. There are two openings on the two sides, but no opening on the front at all.

“both shorter sides” has no antecedent basis.

“each side panel being sewn to its peripheral a zip” is confusing.

“both the upper and the lower ends of the side panel” should be changed to --both the upper and the lower ends of each of the side panels--.

It is unclear what are the “short honeycomb boards”

It is noted that applicant to correct the remaining errors.

2. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph. The examiner reserves the right to make the next Office Action final in the case applicant fails to address the issues as indicated above, or correct all 112 errors or applicant broaden the claim.
